This Week's Liturgical Readings

February 13, 2022 – 6th Sunday in Ordinary Time

- 1) Jeremiah 17:5-8
- 2) 1 Corinthians 15:12, 16-20
- 3) Luke 6:17, 20-26

FOCUS: Blessed are those who trust in the Lord

So often we can be the source of our own suffering. Worldly pursuits and desires for wealth, status, promotion, and the like deceive us into placing our hope in people and things rather than the Lord. This life is fading and only God can offer us true satisfaction in the kingdom of Heaven.

LITURGY OF THE WORD

Jeremiah proclaims the Lord's message, Cursed is the one who trusts in human beings...Blessed is the one who trusts in the Lord. Saint Paul asserts that if Jesus had not risen from the dead, the Corinthians' faith would be in vain. In the Gospel, Jesus speaks to the crowd of disciples, giving examples of those who experience woe.

ANOINTING OF THE SICK FEBRUARY 12-13, 2022

The Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick will be administered THIS weekend, Feb. 12-13, during the Saturday evening and Sunday morning Eucharist, the preferred time and place for this celebration. If you wish to receive this sacrament, on entering the Church tell the ushers you would like to receive, and they will give you a card which you will show to the priest when he comes around for the anointing.

PARISH ONLINE SYNOD LISTENING SESSIONS

About 50 participants attended and contributed their thoughts and ideas. They will finish the third session this coming week. Thank you for your open sharing. For those who could not participate, you will find a copy of the same questions at the back of the Church. These are meant for your prayerful reflection. If you wish to reply to them, your responses will become part of our parish report.

DIOCESAN VOCATION CORNER

How are you contributing to the treasury? God knows what gift we give to Him in love. Let us then be faithful to whatever vocation God calls us to live. Does Jesus want you to give your life to the Church? If you think that God is calling you to serve Him as a priest, religious or deacon, call the Diocese of Hamilton at 905-528-7988 ext. 2246 or e-mail: vocations@hamiltondiocese.com
