Jan. 9, 2022 - Feast of the Baptism of the Lord Liturgy of the Word

- 1) Isaiah 40:1-5,89-11
- 2) Titus 2:11-14,3,4-7
- 3) Luke 3:15-16,21-22

This Feast commemorates the baptism of Jesus in the River Jordan by John the Baptist. Originally, the Baptism of Christ was celebrated on the Epiphany which commemorated the coming of the Magi, the baptism, and the wedding of Cana. Liturgically, the Baptism of the Lord brings the Christmas Season to a close and tomorrow Ordinary Time begins.

So many comparisons with the Annunciation and Birth! "As the people were filled with expectation" so was Mary at the announcement of His birth. "As the Holy Spirit descended on Him in bodily form like a dove," so the same Spirit descended on Mary at her conception. As the voice said, "you are my Son," so the angel said: "Do not be afraid: for see – I am bringing you good news of great joy for all the people." As John the Baptist introduced the people of his time to Jesus, a voice from heaven said: "You are my Son, the Beloved; with you I am well pleased." He is the Emmanuel, the God-with-us.
